Thank you for your submission to F1000Research. We have noted a few issues with your manuscript (below) – once these are addressed we will be pleased to accept your article for publication.

Language: We have noticed that the article is unclear in places, making it difficult to assess the content. In order to improve flow and readability, we would strongly suggest that the article is copyedited, either by a native English speaker or a professional copyediting service in order to improve the language. Please visit our FAQs for a list of some copyediting services you may wish to consider. Please note, they are all independent from us, and we are not able to guarantee the quality of their service. (F1000Research does not offer this level of language editing.)

Content: We endorse the STROBE and SRQR guidelines for reporting quantitative and qualitative studies; we suggest that you ensure the article adheres to the checklist and add any details that are missing. The comments in the manuscript provide some queries relating to the checklist, but these are not exhaustive.

Data availability: Our publication model requires that we always ask the author to provide the raw data that support their findings. We believe that it is essential that others can see the raw data to be able to replicate your study and re-analyse and/or reuse the data (with appropriate attribution).

Please ensure all data is within the same project, under the same DOI.

To ensure you and your co-authors receive appropriate credit for generating your ~~datasets~~, please ensure you include the
